- 3.3.3 All students identified as potentially at-risk, will be contacted by the Course Coordinator no later than Week 6 in the current semester to be offered additional support.
- 3.3.4 It is the student's responsibility to ensure they participate in any additional support strategies recommended.

3.4 Academic progress

- 3.4.1 Students are required to attain minimum academic standards to be deemed to be maintaining satisfactory academic progress in a course of study.
- 3.4.2 Students do not meet minimum academic standards in a course if they:
 - a are at risk of not successfully completing their unit(s) of study
 - b demonstrate low levels of engagement in the unit(s) of study;
 - c fail any given unit of study more than once; and/or
 - d fail two or more subjects attempted in a semester.
- 3.4.3 Each Course Coordinator monitors the academic performance of each student against the minimum academic standards throughout the semester and at the end of each semester.

3.6.3 In determining whether the student is permitted to progress, the Dean of Higher Education will assess the student's academic record. The Dean may allow the student to repeat the prerequisite subject concurrently with the subject that it is a prerequisite for, based on advice from the Course Coordinator and the Dean's assessment as to whether the student may reasonably be expected to be successful.
